

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MARK JEFFERY LEE,

Plaintiff,

v.

SNOHOMISH COUNTY,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C17-0176JLR

ORDER REGARDING SUSPENDED COUNSEL

This matter comes before the court sua sponte. Attorney Rodney R. Moody, counsel for Plaintiff Mark Jeffery Lee, is currently suspended from practice in the Western District of Washington. In re Rodney R. Moody, No. RD16-0070WTM (W.D. Wash.), Dkt. # 3. His suspension in the Western District of Washington stems from a 60-day suspension that the Washington Supreme Court imposed. Id., Dkt. # 1. Although Mr. Moody's suspension from the Washington Supreme Court appears to have ended, see id., he has not sought reinstatement in the Western District of Washington.

1 The court ORDERS Mr. Moody to either (1) seek reinstatement to practice in the
2 District pursuant to the Local Civil Rules, or (2) take necessary steps to ensure that Mr.
3 Lee can retain new counsel or proceed pro se, as Mr. Lee chooses. No later than 10 days
4 of the entry of this order, Mr. Moody must indicate on the docket in this case which of 5 these actions he has taken, what steps he has taken to effectuate the action, and the status
6 of the action. Because Mr. Moody does not have ECF filing privileges, the court
7 DIRECTS the Clerk to mail a copy of this order to the address listed for Mr. Moody on 8 the docket and email a copy of this order to the email address for Mr. Moody listed on the 9 docket.

10 Dated this 21ST day of March, 2017.
